

Faith in Public: Political Theology for Mission

A new three-day residential course exploring issues of:

- Power
- Politics
- Public witness

11 TO 13 JULY
2024

*Spaces limited!
See overleaf for more details*

For more info and to register go to:
pioneer.churchmissionsociety.org/public

THEOS

CHURCH
MISSION SOCIETY

Faith in Public: Political Theology for Mission

‘THEOS

This course explores what it means to be a Christian in the public space and how we can witness in that space as individuals, churches and Christian communities.

It will focus on Christian responses to power, different approaches to politics, commitment to justice and practical ways we can build relationships, work for change and witness to Jesus.

Chine McDonald:

Director of religion and society think tank Theos

Florence Eshalomi:

Member of Parliament for Vauxhall

Nick Spencer: Senior Fellow at the religion and society think tank Theos

Angus Ritchie: Executive Director of the Centre for Theology and Community

Other contributors:

Paul Bickley, James Butler,
Hannah Rich, Sir Philip Rutnam, Citizens UK

Registration closes 11 June 2024.

Spaces are limited so book now.

This is an accredited Common Awards module at level 7 and can count towards a postgraduate qualification at CMS or any Common Awards accredited body.

Dates: 11-13 July 2024: Accommodation is provided by The Royal Foundation of St Katharine near Limehouse. Online sessions: 17 June and 1 and 22 July: 6:30-8pm

Cost: £650 / current students £550

Sponsorship: We have tried to keep the costs as low as possible. Please ask if you would like to apply for a small bursary. If you feel able to give a little to help others attend let us know at the time of booking. Thank you.

To register email:

helen.harwood@churchmissionsociety.org